

REPORT ON SCIENCE DAY

The Department of Science and Humanities of Mahendra College of Engineering celebrated National Science Day on 26.02.22. The first year students eagerly participated and displayed more than 27 models on that day. In order to motivate and encourage the students cash awards and certificates were given to the best models. All the participants were certificates.

